TEXAS.

The Legislature of this last and most turbulent of the rebel States, not content with merely declining to ratify the Constitutional Amendment, either by non-action or by a negative vote, must needs show their teeth by the passage of the following resolution by a vote of 67 to 5:

Be it Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the State of Texas do not ratify the amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as proposed in Article 14, in a joint resolution of Congress.

We would suggest, that as Texas was, at its own solicitation, converted from the condition of a foreign State into a member of this Union, not by treaty, but by a joint resolution of Congress, and therefore could at no time claim to be strictly and constitutionally one of the United States, that now be, by a joint resolution, converted to a territory, and provided with a stringent organic law, under which a loyal people may live in security and grow strong enough to overrule these rebels.

THE NEW POLICY.—It seems to be the "policy" of the President, since the people have knocked his old policy "into a cocked hat," to get up a parcel of new and exciting issues on questions touching our foreign relations. For particulars we refer to our telegraphic columns. "Our country, right or wrong," is an old and favorite American maxim; but all possible care should be taken, and will be taken, to keep it right. Congress will not sanction any rash, unjust or inexpedient measures for the purpose of patching up ANDREW JOHNSON's damaged political record, or of restoring a popularity which he has justly forfeited, or of raising a smoke under which he may escape from the searching inquiry into his official conduct which is in preparation.

THE delegation of Pennsylvania in the present Congress is confessidly of conspicuous ability. Nevertheless, the new delegation has been for too rapidly an increase of mental strength. The people accurately estimated the gravity of the occasion, and have provided for it.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

The Russian-American Telegraph—Fight between Citizens and Indians—Inspection of Pacific Military Posts—Cotton, Tea, &c.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 23.—News from the Russian-American telegraph expedition says that the Russian Corvette Varioz sailed on the 6th of August for the Amoor river, having on board Count Ponnasoff. The Varioz reached Ghyiga on the 15th of August, and sailed four days later for Ochotsk.

Major S. Abasa, chief of the Russian portion of the expedition, had explored the route and determined in regard to the position of the lines between Ghyiga and Ochotsk. Captain Manhood had explored the route between the mouth of the Amoor river and Ochotsk, and joined Major Abasa at the latter point.

Various explorations had determined the route between Behrings sea and the terminus of the line at the mouth of the Moor River. Timber was plenty, and four hundred poles were expected to be ready before the close of the present season. The natives were very plenty along the whole route, and offered the use of their dog trains to assist in transporting materials, and have contracted to supply any amount of reindeer meat. Major Abasa has purchased a large number of dog teams, and established fisheries to supply the dogs with food. The Russian government officials have rendered every facility to the expedition, and this without awaiting instructions from St. Petersburg, and Count Ausoff has issued orders to the officials to render any service necessary for the completion of the line. When the necessary material is removed, the work will be put forward with great rapidity.

A Los Angelos dispatch says that a fierce fight had occurred between the citizens and a murderous band of Indians, in the vicinity of Hardysoville, in which fifty of the latter were killed and the citizens lost none.

General Rufus Ingalls and Gen. M. D. Simpson are on a tour of inspection of the military posts in the Pacific Division. They left Los Angeles, October 12th, for San Diego and Fort Youma.

A Leith letter of August 31st, says that the growth of cotton is extending, and that eighty tons have been shipped to Bordeaux, and eighty tons more would be shipped in January.

The Panama steamer which sailed on the 19th took twenty tons of Japan tea for New York.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

Quarantine Order Rescinded—Mexican Matters—Juarez Still at Chihuahua—Severe Battle Reported—Liberals Defeated—Dispatch from Napoleon, &c.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 24.—Sailed—Steamer Mariposa for New York. Arrived—Ship Squander dismasted, from Liverpool, and the Molacka from Boston.

The order establishing quarantine has been rescinded.

Brownsville dates to the 19th have been received. Juarez is in Chihuahua, not yet having gone to Monterey.

There is no truth in the report that Mejia had attacked Monterey. All is quiet in that city. Escobedo still remains there.

Trevino had gone towards San Luis Potosi with two thousand men to look after Mejia, who was reported at Matahuela. The latter place was surrounded by the Liberals.

Tapea was en route to Matamoras with one thousand men.

Private letters from Brownsville announced a severe battle near Saltillo, resulting in the defeat of the Liberals under Navarjo and Martinez. This victory virtually placed Saltillo in the hands of the Imperialists, who were daily expected in Monterey.

A dispatch has recently been received from Napoleon which had the effect of halting some French troops about embarking, and others were ordered to prepare for active service.

The confidence in Canales' ability to hold Matamoras is increasing. His force is said to be 1,500 strong, most of whom were boys. It is reported on good authority that Juarez had directed the arrest of Canales and Hinijoso, and their trial by court martial. It is reported that he has also ordered the arrest of Carvajal for granting such terms to Mejia and the people of Matamoras. Nothing new from Cortina.

Important Railroad Convention

NEW YORK, October 24.—The Convention composed of delegates from all the great lines of the country, commenced its sittings at the St. Nicholas Hotel. The object of the Convention is to consider the proposed movement to establish a uniform system of signals and regulations, and advance the general interest of the organizations. About fifty men, representing all the leading lines in the United States, were present; the assemblage included the principal Presidents, Directors, Superintendants and Engineers, of the various roads. An aggregate capital of $100,000,000 and three thousand miles of road were represented.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted: That the general object of this convention is the improvement of railroad construction, maintenance and management, and no action should be taken tending to violate the railroad, or place it in a position antagonistic to their interests, and no subject should be entertained involving political, sectional or similarly existing subjects.

The attention of the convention was called to the vast extent of country through which the lines represented passed, and it was suggested that a general Railroad Bureau be established, in which scientific men and able engineers should be employed.

The subject was referred to a committee of five, and the convention adjourned till to-morrow morning.

Guerrillas on the Rio Grande—Anniversary of Queen Isabella's Birth.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 24.—A band of robbers on the Rio Grande, about fifty in number, have been committing great outrages. They have been pursued by companies of Rancheros and U. S. colored troops. Five have been killed. They are composed of Americans, enlisted on the Liberal Mexican side, but who deserted after the quarrels in Matamoras. The robbers are well mounted and armed, and are working their way towards San Antonio.

Havana dates of the 15th say: It is freely reported that Captain General Lersinde will soon be relieved by another, who is said to have left Madrid on the 10th inst.

Queen Isabella's birth day was celebrated as a holiday. About ten thousand trtops were reviewed by the Captain General in the presence of forty thousand people.

The Cholera at Indianapolis—Destructive Fire—Gov. Morton Not a Presidential Candidate.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 24.—There were a few cases of cholera here during the past week, averaging one death per day.

A fire last night destroyed Graydon's feed store and Tate's lumber yard, on Alabama street. Loss probably ten thousand dollars.

The Journal of this morning feels justified in saying that Governor Morton will not be a candidate for Presidential honors in 1868, and does not wish to be placed in the category of aspirants.

Official returns of the Legislature show: Senate, 30 Union to 20 Democrats; House, 60 Union to 40 Democrats.

Destructive Fire at Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 24.—The conflagration this morning, at one o clock, destroyed one million dollars worth of property involving the Banner office, large drug house of Yargur & Co., Louis Eus' billiard saloon, drug house of Haslock & Co., with many smaller establishments, law offices and private apartments. The fire was not checked until three o'clock, and has destroyed all the south front of Cedar street from Cherry to Printer's alley, and extending through to Deadock street. Morse's photograph gallery, well known to the Army of the Cumberland, was entirely consumed. A man sleeping up stairs broke his leg by leaping to the street. Numbers of the old land marks of Nashville are gone.

Relief for the Quebec Sufferers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The produce merchants held a meeting to-day, and appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions for the sufferers by the Quebec fire.

OTTAWA, C. W., Oct. 24.—The city is being canvassed for subsciptions for the sufferers by the Quebec fire. The city council has subscribed £1,000.

A fire is now raging in the woods north of here, causing considerable alarm to the farmers.

Ammunition for the Fenians.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The Evening Express says: Very respectable contributions of arms and ammunition have been sent to headquarters to-day by the Fenians of Troy, who are preparing to back it up with a still larger donation at an early day. Munitions of War arrived from several other parts of the State to-day.

Depredations by Indians.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 24.—Late advices from Montana, say that a party of mountain men, who had encamped at the mouth of Milk River, was attacked by a band of fifty Sioux Indians. After five hours fighting the Indians were driven off with twenty-one killed. Four whites were killed and several wounded.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Disposition of Treasury Property—Order of Gen. Sickles—Appointments—Reports of National Banks—Matters in Mexico—The Situation at Matamoras, &c.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—The statement called for by a resolution of the House of Representatives of May 28th, 1866, and again on September 1st, by the Committee on Retrenchment, with reference to the disposition made of all cotton and other property coming into the hands of Treasury agents during the war, has been prepared under the supervision of the Commissioners of Customs, and was to-day sent to the Secretary of the Treasury.

Maj. Gen. D. E. Sickles, commanding the Department of the South, has issued an order providing that no officer, soldier, or person on duty in the Department, in any capacity subject to military authority, will be allowed to trade, either as principal factor or agent, directly or indirectly, in cotton, rice or other products or merchandise of any kind within the limits of the district or post where he is stationed. The order provides that no person will be permitted to interfere with the rights of the freed people, in common with all others, to sell and dispose of the products of their labor in their own way as they may choose.

This order is not to be construed to revoke any temporary regulation established by competent authority prohibiting the sale of product raised on shares, until the crop shall have been prepared for market and properly divided; nor to prevent our authorized officer or agent on duty in the Freedmen's Bureau from acting as umpire in the settlement of disputes arising out of the division of crops raised on shares.

The Secretary of the Interior has ordered a withdrawal from sale or entry of lands granted by the act of June 3d, 1856, to the State of Michigan for the construction of a railroad from Fort Wayne, Indiana, to Grand Traverse, Michigan.

The following appointments of Internal Revenue officers were made to-day: Walter Breekwith, Collector for the Second District of Michigan; John C. Hog, Assessor, for the Tenth District of Pennsylvania; J. H. McKee, Marshall of the Eastern District of Louisiana.

The following items are from the quarterly reports of National Banks, October 1st, 1866: Total loans and discounts, $600,238,808; United States bonds and securities, $91,954,150; specie on hand, $8,170,835; legal tenders, $205,770,641; capital stock, $415,278,969; surplus fund, $53,359,277; national circulation, $280,129,556; individual deposits, $563,510,570; United States deposits, $30,420,819.

The State Department has received copies of the Spanish official documents, including one intended to render impossible henceforth the successful prosecution of the African slave trade in Cuba and Porto Rico.

Specials to the Herald from New Orleans, 24th: Your correspondent sends me the following, under date of October 19th: The anticipated attack on Matamoras by Cortinas has not yet come off, though hourly expected for a week past.

Cortinas has announced in an official communication to Colonel Sedgwick that he should attack Canales, in accordance with an order from the supreme government. Both parties are making energetic efforts for the coming contest.

Business is almost entirely suspended here, most of the merchants are on the other side. The gun boat Chenaco, is still in the hands of the United States authorities. Canale and Cortina and Escopedo, have asked for her. Colonel Sedgwick responds that he will await the decision of superior authorities.

Escabado is still at Monterey. In a communication received at Brownsville, dated Oct. 6th, he writes that Gen. Jevine has marched to the interior with 4,000 troops. All we hear pending is insignificant Matamoras, which I think will be settled before twelve days, as I have 2,000 men in this place, with which I intend to suppress the meeting there and at once insure that the troops of Victoria and Tampico are in accord with him and will act in conjunction in his operations in the interior.

Information has just reached here that Gen. Topia, with eight hundred men, is escorting a conducta with $800,000 from Monterey to Mier. The steamer Jenny Galuan has gone up the river to bring the money down upon his return. Topia will then immediately proceed to this city, drive out Canales and assume the Governorship by virtue of his commission from Juarez. He will doubtless act in conjunction with Cortinas.

A correspondence in reference to the rights of American citizens, has been going on for some days past between the commanders on the respective shores of the Rio Grande. It has terminated in an amicable adjustment of all questions.

It is not known that any Commissioner of Ortega has arrived here from New York, though expected

Myriads of dead fish have recently been thrown on the shores of Brazos and Padua Islands, supposed to be the result of volcanic action.

The Baltimore Troubles—Arrival of Mr. Peabody.

BALTIMORE, October 24.—There are no new developments in regard to the Police Commissioners. Their counsel still adhere to their original determination not to participate in the examination of witnesses on Friday.

Rumors have been current here to-day of the arrival of troops from Washington, but they are incorrect. It is true that some troops are expected here shortly to embark for Texas, and that a colored regiment will be sent here to be mustered out of service. These are the facts which have probably given rise to the rumors of troops being ordered here with reference to pending difficulties.

The interview of General Canby with the authorities here, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding, was of a most friendly and mutually satisfactory character.

Mr. Peabody arrived here this afternoon, and was received by the Mayor and a committee of the City Council, at the Philadelphia Depot, and escorted to Barnum's Hotel. The trustees of the Peabody Institute also participated in the reception. The dedication of the Institute will take place to-morrow.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—A very long letter from Mr. Browning, Secretary of the Interior, is published in the morning journals and Washington Intelligencer, taking strong grounds against the proposed Constitutional Amendments. At the capture of Ur by the Liberals the Imperial General Trangberry was killed.

Trial of Fenian Prisoners in Canada.

TORONTO, C. W., Oct. 24.—The trial of Fenian prisoners, captured at Fort Erie in June last, commenced this noon. Colonel John B. Lynch was first placed in the dock and plead not guilty. Solicitor General Cockburn and Hon. J. H. Cameron, M. P., appeared for the Crown, and John B. Martin Hamilton and J. H. Doyle Torbut for the defendant. Kennedy McKenzie watches the proceedings in behalf of the American government.

The prisoner's counsel challenged ten jurors before the jury was completed, which consists chiefly of farmers and mechanics from the country. Hon Mr. Cameron opened the case for the Crown with an address to the jury. The first witness was Thomas Newbeggins, of Fort Erie, who identified the prisoner as holding his command among Fenians while they camped on Further's Farm. The evidence for the prosecution occupied from noon till six P. M. One prisoner turned Queen's evidence and confirms the statements of the other witnesses. Adjourned till to-morrow.

The indictment against Garrett VanWagoner, of Passaic, will be moved to-morrow morning.

A letter was read in the United States Court from Judge Chase, stating that although Circuit Judges cannot hold a court until a new assignment by Congress of districts, the Circuit Courts might be held by District Judges.

Witnesses are already summoned. The Grand Jury have not yet acted. There is no change in the situation. Abundant evidence will be furnished on Friday to justify the Governor in any action he may take. There is no truth in the statements that returned Rebels registered here. They all held aloof. The tone of the Radical press is considerably modified. Neither the rebel raider Harry Gilmore nor his friends have had anything to do in this matter. The city is very quiet.

Contemptible Outrage—Gambling Dens of Nashville Burned.

NASHVILLE, October 24.—The Pennsylvania Freedmen's Relief Association completed the school-house at Stephanson, Alabama, last Saturday, and would have commenced a colored school on Monday, on which morning some incendiary burned it to the ground.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

A Model Wife.

A woman bearing the not unromantic and euphonious title of Letitia Montour, appeared before Alderman Taylor yesterday and demanded the magistrate to send a policeman, without a moment's hesitation or delay, to the village of New Brighton, Beaver county, and there arrest and convey back to her cheerless home in the Fifth Ward the body of her husband, Louis Montour, who deserted her quiet society and all the endearments of home on last Friday, and had gone to live with his father in New Brighton.

The dispenser of justice desired to know if she wished to make oath against the unappreciative Louis for desertion, stating that if she did so he would have him brought back without delay and confined in the county jail, until he is perfectly cured of any desire to leave the partner of his bosom. Notwithstanding Letitia's anxiety to see her liege lord—to view his manly physique once again—she refused to do that which would cause him the slightest pain or inconvenience and she finally left the magistrate's office crying over her sorrows, but unwilling to harm, even in thought, he whose fate, at the hymenial altar had been linked to her's. The rascal was undeserving of such a noble woman's slightest thought.

Shooting Affray.

A few days since, as Col. Mila Gibson was returning from the coal works at Limetown Elizabeth township, to his residence he was met on the road by Isaac Byers who ordered him to stop. He then told Gibson to "say what he had to say," as he had not long to live, at the same time bringing up to his shoulder a shot gun. After a moment, seeing that Gibson walked on, he fired, putting forty shot in his back, and twelve in his arms. The distance was great, or the gun so badly charged, that the shot did not at once disable the Colonel, who turned upon his assailant, and gave him a severe pounding—until exhausted he fell and was conveyed home. Dr. W. H. King was called, and extracted some of the shot, but the patient yet lies in a somewhat critical condition.

Rumor gives different reasons for the assault; some say that Byer's wife is mixed up in the affair; others say not. Byers was arrested but broke away from the officers at Dry Run, and has not since been heard from.

Winter.

The whirling snow-flakes of yesterday warn us in a forcible way of the near approach of the protracted cold of winter, and that we should at once provide suitable clothing to protect us from its attacks. Nothing is so essential in keeping the body in a healthy warmth as a good stout pair of boots or shoes during the day, or a heavy pair of woolen blankets during the night. Those articles that are even now indispensable can be purchased at T. A. McClelland's Auction House, Nos. 55 and 57 Fifth street, in single pairs or by the thousand, and at prices that defy competition. McClelland has just received an immense stock of boots, shoes, overcoats, and an infinite variety of heavy fabrics, which are sure to be in demand at this season. Give McClelland a call before purchasing elsewhere.

A Rat Eats the Fingers off an Infant.

A few days since a lady residing on Franklin street, in the Sixth ward, immediately opposite the Sixth Presbyterian church, left her infant of three months old sleeping in her chamber while she proceeded to attend to some domestic duties in an adjoining room. Hearing a piercing scream from the direction of the chamber, she hastened to the side of the crib when she discovered to her horror a large rat leap from it and disappear in a closet. On examining the child she found that the rat had eaten the flesh entirely off of three of the fingers of the right hand, forcing the necessity of amputating them. The injured child is yet living and will propably recover the painful operation.

Hat and Coat Stolen.—Christian Shook appeared before Alderman Humbert yesterday and charged James Dilworth with having entered the dwelling of the deponent, in the Fourth ward, and stolen therefrom a heavy broadcloth dress coat and a felt hat, both articles being worth, in the estimation of the owner, the sum of seventy dollars. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Dilworth.

Fell in a Fit.—A highly respectable young gentleman from Philadelphia yesterday fell into a fit at the Custom House steps and worked in convulsions for some time. In falling his head came in contact with the stone steps, inflicting a serious wound on the forehead. He was taken to the residence of a friend and received all proper attention.

THE TEMPERANCEVILLE HOMICIDE.

Trial of Charles B. Stein for Murder.

SECOND DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 24.—Court opened at the usual hour, and the trial of Charles B. Stein, for the murder of David Roberts, was resumed.

THE DEFENSE.

The case for the defense was opened by B. B. Parkinson, Esq., who addressed the jury, setting forth the points which would be brought out by the counsel for the defendant, and reviewing the testimony of the Commonwealth. The witnesses for the prosecution had testified to too much. Some of them came upon the stand with the apparent intention of swearing the case through at all hazards. The defense would frankly acknowledge that they did not for a moment deny that Roberts was shot by Stein and so lost his life, but they would contend that the shooting was done while Roberts, or at least the party of which he was a member, were committing a gross, violent and dangerous assault upon defendant's wife. In other words, the defense in the case would be self-defence.

John Grabe, sworn—Was at Stein's tavern on the 28th of May, when the affray occurred. It was about eight o'clock when I got there. Mr. Stein, Mrs. Stein and the bar-keeper were there, besides several persons in the back-room, who witness could not name. Mr. Goesszler went in at the same time with witness, Three or four men came in about a quarter or half an hour afterwards. Did not know any of them. Can't say whether he saw any of them among the witnesses yesterday. They asked for beer, and Mrs. Stein set the beer on the counter for them. She asked for money, and they did not give any. She then took the beer away again. They kept quiet for a while, and then three or four other men came in, or else the same men moved to the other end of the counter. One of the new men called for a cigar, which Mrs. Stein gave him, and he lit it. Don't know whether he paid for it or not. It was then quiet for a while; then Boezzler and Zoeller came in. Witness was drinking his beer, while the men at the other end of the counter were engaged in conversation with Stein. Don't know what they said. The one who smoked the cigar blew the smoke into Stein's face; Stein remonstrated; think he told the man he could not bear the smoke; the man still continued to blow the smoke, and Stein knocked the cigar out of his mouth; the man ordered Stein to pick the cigar up, which Stein refused to do; the man then took a step behind the counter and made a motion to pull off his coat to fight Stein; Stein said he could not fight except with the revolver, which he showed; Mrs. Stein gave the man his cigar and shoved him back; the man then stepped back and threw the cigar, still lighted, at Stein, and seemed to be in a great rage; Goessler, Boegzler and Zoeller were standing by the counter, and the man run up against them and shoved them back, as if he was crazy; Goessler then stepped up and said that was his place, and he paid for his drinks too. After this Goessler and Grounds were going to fight, but did not get together. Then it was quiet. I thought everything was over. But shortly afterwards I saw Grounds and Goessler together, scuffling. A third person soon came up and struck at Goessler, and hit him; think he struck him more than once; heard some one call out "Come on;" don't know who it was; think it was in English. Immediately after the door was shoved open and several men rushed in; didn't know any of the men. Mrs. Stein then came from behind the counter with a stick of wood in her hand. I then started back to go down the stairs; then heard Mrs. Stein shriek out; did not understand her to say anything. She cried out again after a while. After she cried out the second time heard the shot fired. When I went back to go down stairs the bar-room was pretty full, did not see any one leaning on the counter. There was no particular noise as I went out; think Welton was in the scuffle with Grounds and Goessler; did not see the man with the cigar; had known Stein about two months before this thing occurred.

Cross-examined by District Attorney—Have been in this country about a year; cannot speak English, but can understand a few words; remained in Stein's that night an hour or an hour and a half; had been to town before that; had drank three or four glasses of beer in Stein's; don't know how many he had drank in Pittsburgh; don't know how many saloons I went into in Pittsburgh; visited none in Temperanceville before Stein's; The bar keepers, Mr. and Mrs. Stein were behind the counter when I went in; I stood about the middle of the counter when the first difficulty occurred; the man who asked for the cigar stood near the corner of the counter; they talked about the cigar in Eenglish; the man was leaning on the counter when he blew the smoke into Stein's face; when the man wanted to fight Stein, Stein showed him the revolver and said he could'nt fight except with that; Stein then put his revolver away again and walked forward; the man had got his cigar from Mrs. Stein and came around and threw it at Stein; he then made motions at Stein for a minute or two, and after that I saw nothing of the man; don't know where I saw Mrs. Stein after that or what she was doing; was going down the steps when I heard the first cry, and had reached the bottom when I heard the second; immediately after the second shriek I heard the shot; there was some more noise in the bar room than usual; don't know whether it was the men or the beer that made the noise; did not see any scuffling, except what has been mentioned.

Re-direct—Left the room because I did not want to be in a big fight.

John Rice, sworn—Was at Stein's on the night of the occurrence; went there about nine o'clock; saw the bar-room full of people; John Welton and Creig, were there, but did not know the names of the other; did not know Roberts; when I went to the door to go in, I saw four or five men outside pushing and kicking at it to get in; some one inside was trying to hold the door; he did not succeed, and those outside pushed the door in; went in and came up towards the bar; as I did so, Mrs. Stein came up towards these men and told them there was too much noise, and they must leave; Mr. Welton then caught Mrs. Stein by the arm and threw her on the floor; he had a stick of wood used for opening beer barrels, in his hand; Mrs. Stein was crying for help; some person then came up and struck me in the face and called me a d—d dutchman; don't know who it was; he spoke English; I was trying to get to Mrs. Stein to help her, when I received a blow on the head with a stick; Did not see who struck me; I went into the other room and then heard the shot fired; Mrs. Stein cried out several times; she lay on the floor about five minutes; did not see any thing done to her; there was a crowd about her; did not see Stein in the room at all, at this time; as I started to go out, Mrs. Stein was lying on the floor.

Cross-examined by Mr. Duff—Live at Temperanceville; before I went to Stein's I had been to Pittsburgh; had been in the city about two hours; drank no beer in Stein's, I had drank none before; did not see Stein; did not know Roberts at all; know Welton and Grounds; was standing two or three feet from the counter when I was struck first; Mrs. Stein was walking across the room at the time, tolling the men to go out; Welton then caught her by the arm and jerked her to the floor; she lay about six or seven feet from me; was not knocked down when hit with the club; did not see Mrs. Stein have any club; it was ten or fifteen minutes after I went out that I heard the shot fired.

Erhardt Goessler, sworn.—Was at Stein's house at the time of the affray. Went there about half past seven. Mr. Graff, Mr. Zoeller and Mr. Taylor and several others were these. We stood at the bar, talking quietly, and some other men stood at the other end of the counter quarrelling with Stein. Don't know who they were. Am acquainted with Grounds. Did not know Roberts. All of a sudden some person came shoving along and knocked us back. I got mad and told them I had a right there, for I paid for my drinks too I stepped up to the bar again and a man struck at me. Saw that I could do nothing against so many and went into the other room. Heard the quarrelling still going on. After a time—don't know how long,—heard three shots fired. Then they all went out. Did not see any one fall. Mrs. Stein was in the bar room when I went into the back room. Saw no difficulty between her and Welton. Heard some one cry out but don't know whether it was Mrs. Stein or somebody else. It was about five or ten minutes after the cry that the shots were fired. Left the bar room because I knew there would be a fight.

—Cross Examined by Mr. Duff.—It must have been Grounds that shoved me at the counter. Stein was at the other end of the counter from me. Did not know Roberts. Did not see any man on the floor after the shots were fired. This occured at about half past eight or nine o'clock.

T. B. Flack, Esq., sworn—Am assistant to the District Attorney; was present at the Coroner's inquest and took notes of the testimony; did not hear the testimony before Welton's, the rest I took down myself, having copied what had been given before.

George Shafer, sworn—Was at Stein's at the time of the shooting; went there about seven o'clock in the evening; went in, and went in the back room; heard loud talking and much noise in the bar-room; looked and saw Mrs. Stein go and try to shut the door; she had a club in her hand; some man tried to take the club out of her hand. At the same time some one caught hold of her with both hands and threw her on the floor. There were two glasses of beer on the counter, and some man took one of them and threw it a Stein; went into the back room again and went home; thought it was time to get out; did not know who threw the beer glass; did not hear any shot fired before I left the house, but heard them after I got outside.

Cross-examined by District Attorney—Live in Temperanceville; have been in the country nine years; did not drink any beer at all that evening; when I first went into the bar-room Stein was standing behind the counter; did not see him any more after that; the man that threw the beer was standing in front of the counter; Stein was stooping over; I then shut the door of the back room and left; don't remember to have heard more than one shot.

Michael Dello sworn—Was at Stein's on the night of the affray; did not know the people who were there; have lived in Temperanceville about a year; was in the back room and did not see much; saw one man throw Mrs. Stein on the floor; Stein was behind the counter; did not see anything more; was standing in the back room at the time; did not hear her cry out or make any noise; was not there when the shot was fired; did not see any men force open the door.

Cross-examined by Mr. Duff—Saw Stein behind the counter; did not know Roberts, and cannot tell whether he was there or not.

Gottlieb Bergner, sworn—Was at Stein's house when the shooting occurred; went there after eight o'clock. There were some Germans and some English there, can't remember all the names, but Welton was there; went into the back room and some beer; went then into the bar-room and saw Goessler's nose bleeding; looked back and saw Mrs. Stein falling on the floor; heard her cry out several times; couldn't say whether she was thrown down or fell down. A few minutes afterward the shot was fired. I was in the back room at the time. They all went out then, and I with them. When I was in the bar-room Stein was behind the counter.

Mrs. Heinrich Sharffe, sworn—Live next to Mr. Stein's. On the night of the affray I saw some persons going in, but saw nobody trying to push the door open. Afterwards I heard Mrs. Stein hollow, and then heard some shots

Theodore Franz—sworn—Made a plot of the bar-room of Mr. Stein's house. [Plot shown him.] This is the plot I made, and it is correct. [Explained the diagram to the Court.]

At the conclusion of the testimony of this witness, the Court took a recess until two o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Court re-assembled at two o'clock, and the testimony for the defense was resumed.

Andrew Stein, aged eleven years, a son of the defendant, was called by the counsel and, after being questioned by the Court to ascertain his fitness to testify, was permitted to make an unsworn statement, as follows:

Am eleven years old, and am the son of the defendant; have been living in Temperanceville two years; did not know David Roberts who was killed; knew Grounds. Was in the bar room on the evening the shooting occurred; was in there when Grounds came in; don't recollect who came in with him; I first saw Roberts try to get behind the counter, and mother told him that was not his place. Roberts asked for a cigar, and my mother gave him one; he took it and threw it into pap's face; he then partly took off his coat and tried to fight pap, but put'ed on his coat again; Mother was behind the counter, and came out Roberts had a knife, but I could not see the handle. Heard mother say five or six times, "Put your knife up." Roberts put his knife up, and my mother told Welton and all them to go out. Welton and the rest were fighting. My mother had a club in her hands, and Welton took it away from her, and tried to hit her. He then threw the club over the counter at pap. Pap was standing at the end of the counter. Welton took his two hands around my mother's waist, and threw her down on the floor. My mother hollowed, "O! God, O, God! Help me!" She tried to get up, and Bill Welton caught her by the shoulders and threw her back again. She hallowed again, and then Roberts kicked her. After that Pap shot him. Before the shot I saw a beer glass thrown at pap, but don't know who threw it. After the shot I ran down the steps behind the bar, and did not see anything more of it. Welton had thrown me out of the door at first that evening.

Cross-questioned by Mr. Duff.—I was standing looking by the steps behind the bar; my mother was standing in the middle of the room when Welton knocked her down; Roberts was behind my mother when he kicked her; When my Pap shot Roberts, he fell close to the counter; mother lay in the middle of the room. Never told this story to any one before, nor had any talk with my father or mother about it; the counter is as high as my head; so high that I could not look over it; I was sitting behind the counter looking out; don't know where my father kept his pistol; I was told to tell this story and told it before coming into Court.

Capt. Arthur Ehrenberg, sworn—Know the defendant; have known him since 1864, when he lived on St. Clair street; Did not know him in the service; think he is a peaceable, quiet man.

John Brush, sworn—Live in Temperanceville; have known Stein two years; he has a good character for peace.

Charles Geiger, sworn—Know Stein; he has a good reputation as a quiet man so far as I know.

Other witnesses testified that, so far as they knew, the defendant was a peaceable, quiet man. One witness testified that defendant lost his leg by falling off of a railroad bridge

REMITTING TESTIMONY.

William Wilton, re-called by the Commonwealth.—Did not throw the boy Andrew Stein out of the door, on the night in qestion, or see him at all. (Counsel for defence objected, but the Commonwealth was permitted to continue the examination;) have known Stein for some time, his reputation for peace is not very good, so far as I know, or very bad.

Frank Treiner, sworn—Know Stein; have known him six months; live in Temperanceville; from all I heard of him before this occurrence his character for peace and gentleness was bad; he and I are good enough friends; he had a difficulty with me once and drew a revolver on me.

Edward Kelly, sworn—Have known Stein about a year; his reputation for peace and quietness was bad; I have no ill feelings toward him, but he has toward me; he drew a pistol on me once; I did not fire a pistol in at his window at that time; heard several persons speak against him before the murder.

Ford Reed, sworn—Know Stein; from what I heard his reputation before the occurrence was bad.

Several other witnesses were called by the Commonwealth, who testified substantially as above. The examination of these witnesses closed the testimony in the case, and Colonel T. M. Bayne, associated with the District Attorney for the Commonwealth, addressed the jury at some length, claiming, from the evidence, that the defendant committed the killing with malice aforethought, and that consequently the prisoner is guilty of murder in the first degree.

He was followed by T. B. Parkinson, Esq., on behalf of the defense. Mr. Parkinson briefly summed up to the jury the points comprehended in the testimony, and at the conclusion of his remarks the Court adjourned until this morning.

The Voyage of Life.

To those who are unacquainted with the perils and trials which surround one in the rough voyage of life, it might be useful now and again to give a hint or two how each one may guide his own boat over the surges and quicksands which continually beset him. Those who have good health and vigorous faculties, may glide down the stream without a ripple, but when sickness and pain, and a shattered constitution are in the way it is difficult enough. Under such a load, the strong will frequently bends to the gale, and the frail vessel of man's humanity is wrecked half way, or stranded in its struggle amid the rough breakers of life. The greatest and most terrible diseases with which we have to contend are those of the lungs and pulmonary organs, because they attack the very citadel of life. It is in these important organs that the vital air is received, and upon which health and vigorous usefulness depends. How important, then to cure the first invasion of disease by a timely application of the right remedy! That remedy for disease of any of the pulmonary organs, is Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup, "which, in more than ten thousand instances, has warded off and cured those diseases which, if left to themselves, in many cases, would have become incurable diseases of the lungs. Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup effects its purpose by strengthening nature in her efforts, by checking, dissolving, correcting or expelling morbid humors from the checked or clogged organism."

It dissolves and carries out of the system that starchy and viscid phlegm which obstructs the bronchia and air passages, and hinders the proper inspiration of pure air necessary to the proper fulfillment of physical life. It has ever been known, after tubercles have been formed and developed in the substance of the lungs, to dissolve them and carry them out of the system. It is in this way alone that we account for the many extraordinary cures that Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup has made—cures made in this city, and among people who have given their testimonials as to its efficacy. Not one or a few cases, but in nearly every house Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup has made cures of ordinary coughs and colds, and in some instances of lung diseases which had boggled at the use of every other remedy or kind of treatment. Do not neglect slight coughs and colds. They are the harbingers of fatal lesions or fatal developments of some serious lodgment in the system, which if not carried out or silenced, will gnaw away the vitals, or cough into shreds the delicate linings of the throat and lungs.

Ask for Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup, 140 Wood street. Consulting rooms for lung examinations 120 Penn street.

Large Business.

We are pleased to learn that the young and enterprising firm of Herlehy & Johnson, Fifth street extension, are monopolizing to themselves a large share of the public patronage in their line of business; practical plumbing and gas fitting. Success usually attends any line of trade where those engaged in it exhibit so much industry, energy and enterprise, as do the proprietors of this widely known establishment. They give undivided personal attention to all departments of their business, and perform in the best and most durable style, all manner of work extended to them, by city and country patrons. Their stock of chandaliers, pendants, brackets, globes, pumps, basins, sinks, bath tubs, and in short all manner of goods usually found in similar first class houses, is large and well selected; and every article is sold at rates which more than favorably compete with Eastern houses. We earnestly commend Messrs. Herlehy & Johnson, to the patronage of the community, knowing them to be upright representative young business men, in every way worthy support and encouragement.

The Cholera.—We hear of no new cases of the cholera, and feel safe in saying that the dread disease has entirely disappeared from our city. Persons should, however, be very cautious, as we know not what moment the disease may re-appear.

The Meteors.—A party of ladies and gentlemen is being formed to visit Coal Hill on the night of the great exhibition of heaven's fireworks, next month. From that locality an excellent view may be obtained.

Death of J. S. Cosgrave, Esq.

We are pained to announce the death of one of our most respected fellow citizens, John S. Cosgrave, Esq., who died last evening at his residence on Second street. Mr. Cosgrave we believe was a native of Virginia, but in early life came to this part of the country and made it his home. He was at one time engaged in the wholesale grocery business, in the firm of Bagaley & Cosgrave, after which he embarked very extensively in the coal shipping trade. The rebellion found most of his worldly effects upon Southern waters, and we believe proved a total loss. The deceased was endowed with many fine qualities of head and heart, and was the possessor of a noble nature, rendering him a pride and ornament to society, and an universal favorite among those who enjoyed his acquaintance. He leaves a wife and family, who have our sincerest sympathy in this, their hour of trial and sorrow. Mr. Cosgrave will be buried to-morrow morning at nine o'clock.

A Quiet Woman Abused.

Margaret McAdams, if her own story can be relied upon, is one of the quietest, "peace a blest," most harmless and worst treated feminines in the world. How any person could have the heartlessness to injure such a creature, it is beyond the range of our limited philosophy to determine. Yet, such a person breathes the "pure oxygen of heaven," and resides in a tenement on Marbury street, in the Fifth ward, and is called Elizabeth Allison. Yesterday the latter, who is a meek faced, diminutive female, attacked the robust Margaret, and after beating her in the face for a considerable time she caught the disheveled locks of the quiet woman, and succeeded in pulling several handfuls out by the roots. For doing which she was arraigned before Alderman Taylor yesterday evening, and was forced to give bail in the sum of $300 for her appearance at a hearing to be had in the case to-day.

A Watchman on a Lark.

One of Mayor McCarthy's night-watchmen named William Kelley, imbibed rather too freely of a certain strong beverage known as Monongahela rye, on Tuesday evening, and the consequence was he became hilarious and pugilistic in his desires. While reeling homeward he encountered a man named Thomas Haley, whom he proceeded at once to beat in an outrageous manner. As soon as Haley—who hails from the Eighth Ward—freed himself from the grasp of the maudlin guardian of the night he hastened to the office of Alderman Strain and made oath against his assailant for assault and battery. Kelley was arrested and held to bail for a hearing.

Painful Accident.—A boy named Charles Allinder, while attempting to climb up the rugged side of Boyd's Hill, near Dam No. 1, on the Monongahela river yesterday morning, lost his footing and tumbled down the precipitous declivity, a distance of forty feet, alighting on the track of the Pittsburgh & Connellsville Railroad. He was taken up by several of his companions immediately after and carried to his home in the Seventh ward, where Dr. Herron was summoned to attend to his injuries. Besides several severe contusions of the body, the lad had his right arm broken below the elbow.

Librarian Wanted.—Attention is directed to the advertisement, in another column, of "Librarian Wanted."

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1866.

ANDREW JOHNSON.

Few men have had fairer opportunities of so performing valuable services to their age and country as to be gratefully remembered by on-coming generations, than the man who now fills the presidential chair of the United States. Cast, in the midst of momentous events, into the possession of great authority, and at the head of a nation flushed with triumph over a formidable rebellion, it was in his power to so contribute to the reorganization of the government as to elevate freedom, conserve order, and help the progress of mankind. Debauched by personal vices, swayed by ungovernable passions, deluded by promises made only to be broken, and infatuated by hopes destined to perish, he forgot his honorable pledges, betrayed the party through whose confidence he was raised to conspicuity, put himself at the head of the defeated rebellion, and undertook, by a series of arbitrary and illegal measures, to deliver the sword of victory into the hand of the vanquished, and to put the loyal men of the nation under the heel of treason. Coarse, brutal, defiant, he sought to make his word stand in place of the will of the nation, and to corrupt, by patronage, those who would not bend at his threatenings. With a singular combination of duplicity and effrontery, he readily employed both seducement and bravado. For a time it seemed as if Fate had resolved to plunge the republic into fresh trials under a ruler incapable of appreciating the beauty of Truth and untouched by a sentiment of Honor. At length the people began to speak by States, and their grand utterances at once appalled the President and his fellow conspirators. That Policy which, like PANDORA'S Box, seemed to be the fated source of all imaginable and unimaginable forms of misery and mischief, is dashed and scattered.

There is now telegraphic intimations that the President, admonished and corrected by the elections, is disposed to return to his duty, and acknowledge Congress as the rightful and exclusive law-making power in the nation. It is stated that two members of the Cabinet have advised him to accept the Congressional Plan, and that he is disposed to do so. It is now of but little consequence what he may elect to do or not to do in the premises. The destiny of the nation is clearly not in his keeping, but in its own. The loyal people have demonstrated their competency to the emergency, and are ready to deal with the President as his conduct may deserve, and their welfare demand.

It is already decided that the Congressional Plan shall be incorporated into the organic law. It matters nothing whether the ten unreconstructed States consent or not, or Tennessee be accounted valid or invalid. Before the close of the approaching session of Congress enough loyal States will be embraced within the circle of the Union to ratify the proposed Amendment to the Constitution in the completest sense. If anything farther shall be adjudged necessary or expedient to ensure safety and repose, that, too, will be adopted; and the revolted States, whenever they shall come in, will be compelled to accept the prescribed conditions.

Nor is this all. During the last session not a few members of Congress, who were true to the doctrines and measures of the Republican party, were deceived by the assurances the President gave them personally. He cannot deceive them again. They now know he did not intend to keep faith with them, but only with the rebels and their allies. Conciliation and harmony will not be attempted by them where they know it to be impossible. From the day the session opens until the day it shall close, Congress will perform its whole duty with dignity, firmness and patriotism. If it shall become needful to institute a scrutiny into the manner in which the Executive Department has been conducted, that duty will be done temperately, fearlessly, thoroughly. The people own the Government, and mean, through their representatives, to see that it is so managed as to give them satisfaction. If there are unfaithful or corrupt servants, they know how to arrest and punish them. The time has gone by for the President to denounce loyal members of Congress as traitors at the other end of the line, and who are to put down by military force as the other sort of traitors were. Such unmeasured insolence will be no longer endured, and least of all from a functionary who is openly in league with the men whose hands are red with the blood of the defenders of the country. The strength of the constitution has been tested at all points, save in that which gives to the two Houses authority to arraign, impeach and depose a delinquent President. It may be that the drama of the rebellion is to be rounded out by this last act, which shall stand as a warning and restraint through all the coming ages of the Republic.

ITALIAN UNITY.

The cession of Venitia to King VICTOR EMMANUEL does not complete the unification of the Italian people. Savoy was alienated to recompense the Emperor of the French for his aid in the great struggle for the ejection of Austria from the peninsula. As the early nest of their house this province is peculiarly dear to the reigning family, but its recovery can be expected only upon the recurrence of one of those rare eras in which the map of France is reconstructed by the intervention of leagued nations. Rome remains, as it has for many ages, the patrimonial inheritance of the Sovereign Pontiffs. In it, however, Italian history finds its centre. Swarming memories of twenty centuries consecrate it as the capital of Italy. Thither the aspirations of all the provinces go up. Until the Government shall regain its ancient seat, Italy must feel that she is not quite herself. A sense of unrest pervades the people. An intense desire remains to be accomplished. A most powerful motive prompts to military enterprise.

Nor does it admit of reasonable question that the Italian people, free to pursue their own impulses, would have made Rome their political capital years ago. The Temporal Supremacy has not been maintained by Italy, but by France and Austria. In this matter France, at least, has acted in contradiction of her professed respect for the solidarity of peoples. Her theologic ideas have mastered her political ones. This infirmity is not uncommon either in nations or individuals, and often exists strongest in those who least suspect it. How far the recent changes in European combinations will alter the aspect of the Roman question cannot now be definitely determined. In movements at once so large and intricate much must be left to practical solution. The King of Italy will doubtless occupy Rome when he can do so without provoking France to war. As for Austria, she is so crippled, and exposed to such imminent hazards in the event of fresh collisions, that she excites contempt rather than fear.

Popes existed, and ruled christendom by the power of a name, before the Temporal Supremacy was achieved. The acquisition of that Supremacy was only one of the incidents and evidences of the wide and potent sway they exercised. If that supremacy should fail and perish, the Pontiffs would remain, and might attain new and unexpected splendors. Indeed, whatever advantages resulted to the Catholic Church during the disordered and turbulent Middle Ages from the political power of the Popes, there are, as we view the matter, many and cogent reasons going to show that the longer retention of that power will be a blunder. The exclusion of Italy from Rome is destroying the veneration of the Italians for the Pope, and persisted in, may surround the Pope with a heretical communion. There are serious dangers in such a policy, which will ultimately find a remedy in needed concessions.

It is possible the present Pope, rather than yield a point he has long maintained with singular tenacity and spirit, against great odds, may in the final moment, if it shall arrive in his day, remove the Pontifical seat to a new location; but they calculate wildly who infer that upon such a step Catholicism would disintegrate and wither. The root is, indeed, old, but the branches flourish in as vigorous a green as ever. The Popes, in the mutations of events, have on several occasions been constrained to remove from Rome. The modern conqueror of Europe not only drove the Pope out of Italy and appropriated his temporal dominions, but made a prisoner of him. When the storm had spent its fury, the old ideas asserted their supremacy, and the conqueror knelt at the feet of the Pope, a humble suppliant.

If the Pope shall abandon Rome, it will be only for a season. The traditions of the Church center there as absolutely as the aspirations of the Italian people. Both will, therefore, as we judge, find their ultimate realization, in the separation of the spiritual from the temporal authority. It is a point difficult for the Pope to yield; but when once the concession shall be made, pleas to assuage the loss will not be wanting, and real compensations will not be searched for in vain.

THE CONTEST IN BALTIMORE.

That Gov. SWANN is resolved to proceed against the Police Commissioners of Baltimore, and that the Mayor and citizens of that city will resist his action in the premises appear now to be certain. As the matter has become—as well it may—one of intense interest to the whole country, we are desirous of throwing all the light we can upon the question in controversy; for, as in all conflicts of the kind, both parties claim to have the law on their side. The following, which we take from the letter of the New York Tribune's Baltimore correspondent, affords as a summary a view of the case as we have seen.

> It may be well to a proper understanding of the present condition of things, here to briefly state the facts which have preceded and led to the existing complication. It is known to the country that after the successful efforts of the National Government and the loyal people of this State to preserve it from being plunged into the vortex of disunion and rebellion, a Convention was called to revise the Constitution, and that they discharged their duties so effectually as to relieve the State from the incubus of slavery, and prohibit the active disloyal element from any participation in the elective franchise. The Constitution provided that every voter should take a very stringent oath, and excluded from voting any person guilty even of sympathizing with the rebellion in its attempt to destroy the Union. The Constitution further made it the duty of the Registry Boards and of the Judges of Elections to exclude from Registration and voting those who were known as active sympathizers with the rebellion, even if they manifested a willingness to commit perjury to secure the right of suffrage.
> Under this Constitution, which was adopted by a majority of the loyal people, the present Executive and Legislature were elected. Since his election, however, Governor Swann has abandoned the party which honored him with his present position, and has joined hands with the disloyalists in their attempts to carry the State over to the party who are attempting to secure to the late Rebels through Executive action the power which they failed to obtain through armed Rebellion. The Governor, under the Constitution, appoints the registers of the voters, and these have been uniformly selected from those who are willing to favor the conspiracy to place the Border States on the side of the late Rebels. It is charged, and the charge can be fully substantiated, that in the present registration the name of any person willing to perjure himself by taking the iron-clad oath has been placed upon the Registry, no matter what his previous record has been. It is well known that the most malignant secessionists have thus been allowed to register, and openly proclaim their intention to take part in the election on the 6th of November. It was intended to carry the recent Municipal election against the Unionists in this manner, but the opinion of the Attorney General, (which the Governor tried, but failed to suppress,) that that election must be held under the old registration, frustrated that scheme, and the former Municipal Government was re-elected.
>
> In Baltimore City and County the Judges or Inspectors of Elections and the clerks are appointed by the Board of Police Commissioners. The Board in the discharge of their duty made their appointments for the ensuing year and appointed men to the positions whom they knew to be in favor of the Registry Law and disposed to enforce it and prevent the polling of illegal votes.
>
> Finding that the game was against them thus far, the opposition practically abandoned the contest for municipal officers, and a very light vote was polled. Now they appeal to the Governor to set aside this election on the ground of unfairness and illegality, and remove the present Police Commissioners from their positions and appoint a new Board, who will disregard their obligations and allow rebels and rebel sympathizers to vote. They have trumped up a series of charges against the Commissioners, and on them demand their removal.

The fourth section of the first article of the new constitution of Maryland is in these words:

> "No person who has at any time been in armed hostility to the United States, or the lawful authorities thereof, or who has been in any manner in the service of the so-called Confederate States of America, and no person who has voluntarily left this State and gone within the military lines of the so-called Confederate States or armies with the purpose of adhering to said States or armies, and no person who has given any aid, comfort, countenance and support to those engaged in armed hostility to the United States, or in any manner adhered to the enemies of the United States, * * * or who has, by open deed or word, declared his adhesion to the cause of the enemies of the United States, or his desire for the triumph of said enemies over the arms of the United States, shall ever be entitled to vote at any election to be held in this State, &c."

Our readers are aware that Governor SWANN summoned the Police Commissioners to appear before him at Annapolis; that they declined to obey the summons in person, and obeyed by attorney only so far as to deny the jurisdiction of the Governor, and waive anything in the nature of a defence. Upon the withdrawal of the attorneys of the Commissioners, the Governor and the attorneys of the complainants consulted, resolved to proceed, and fixed upon Friday (to-morrow) as the day for final action in the premises.

The Governor bases his right to remove the Commissioners upon this clause in the law under which that Board was created:

> "For official misconduct, any of the said Commissioners may be removed by a concurrent vote of the two Houses of the General Assembly, or by the Governor during the recess thereof."

There are no other provisions than this on the subject of their removal. Now where a man has that much law to stand upon, and is eager to avail himself of the power it gives him, he can make his position pretty strong and tenable. There is certainly a slackness in this particular provision, which appears to invest the Governor with almost despotic power; but there is no slackness in the constitution which debars all those who may in any manner have taken part in, or aided or encouraged the rebellion from the privilege of suffrage. But the Governor, and the party of the Rebellion who are urging him on—with REVERDY JOHNSTON, who, in a solemn legal opinion, advised the disloyal people of Maryland to perjure themselves rather than lose their right of suffrage, at their head—seem to be determined to override the constitution in order to put the State of Maryland into the hands and under the rule of the rebel party.

Governor SWANN, like President JOHNSON, was trusted and elected by the Republicans, and, like his higher official exemplar, betrayed them. In fact Maryland is, politically, an epitome of the Union. Maryland, however, could easily manage her Governor, were it not for the greater power which is lodged in the hands of a still more dangerous man. Now, as there is but one authority this side of revolution capable of grappling with the President, and as that authority can safely be trusted, would it not be better to permit Governor SWANN to have his way for the present? If members of Congress are elected in Maryland by voters who are constitutionally disfranchised, their election will go for nothing; and if, by the votes of men chosen in the same way, Gov. SWANN shall be elected to the Senate, the Senate can easily inquire into the facts, and exclude him.

"Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the King of Israel," was the order of an ancient military leader on the eve of a decisive battle. It was wise in that case, and it is pre-eminently wise in our case; for, depend upon it, a side issue with Governor SWANN will throw the great Republican host into confusion, and place it at a disadvantage; and this, probably, is the main object of the subtle enemy with whom we have to deal.

Our sympathies are strongly with the gallant Republicans of Baltimore; but the best service their brethren of other States can render them is to concentrate all their forces, and march, on a strictly constitutional line, directly upon "the King of Israel."

HARRISBURG CORRESPONDENCE.

HARRISBURG, October 22, 1866.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—Over a combined opposition, which can never again be arrayed to contest Pennsylvania with the Republican party, we have triumphed gloriously. No other State has yet done its duty so thoroughly. It is doubtful whether it be possible for any of those States yet to speak to do so well. Gen. Koontz, who only obtained his seat from Coffroth after the great test questions of the last session were passed, is returned by nearly one thousand majority. Mr. Archbald pressed the copperhead Dennison in the Luzerne district so vigorously, that the Democracy were forced to resort to frauds, and votes were colonized against us to the number of twice Dennison's majority. Archbald will contest the seat, and Congress will oust the copperhead elected by fraud. Gen. Cake displaces Meyers Strouse, the bitterest rebel in Congress from Pennsylvania except John L. Dawson, whom honest John Covode has definitely shelved. And to this real gain of four members of the House, we have sent a Legislature to Harrisburg, whose duty it will be to make good the people's verdict by electing a Radical friend of the Union and of Pennsylvania, in place of the late Edgar Cowan.

The people have performed their whole duty, let the Legislature be equally true to the interests of the Union and of Pennsylvania, and our victory will be complete. The names of several distinguished citizens have been used in connection with the Senatorship, and already has the work of electing a U. S. Senator—(on paper)—begun. Happily for the interests of our noble State this harmless exercise only excites a few politicians of the fraternity known as "the ring." They are corrupt rascals all, and I am hopeful that other influences will control this vital issue. What our State now wants is a man whose record on Radicalism is unimpeachable, and whose devotion to the industrial interests of our State admits of no doubt whatever. We do not want a Senator who has learning without wisdom, or oratorical splendor without practicability. Such an one can be of no service. Neither will the election of a second or third rate politician, however showy he may be, do us any good.

Nor will the imminence of our country's peril allow us to take any man for this high office whose reputation can be compressed into the single descriptive line that he has been "everything by turns, and nothing long." We want none of these; but in their stead let us have one whose firmly established convictions are that Liberty is the most expedient foundation as well as the safest upon which to rebuild the superstructure of our shattered country, and whose life-long principles and acts go to show that protection to American labor is the corner stone of Pennsylvania's greatness, and the certain assurance of her highest development.

Let the working men of Pennsylvania, the Mechanics, the miners, the laborers, use their influence with the manufacturers and capitalists in favor of some one for this distinguished office, whose interests are interwoven with theirs, and whose acts in the past will furnish the best guarantee that in the future, the importers of foreign manufactures shall not be permitted to destroy our iron mills and furnaces, and close our collieries by flooding our markets with the handiwork of French and British artisans, and so either force us to abandon manufactures or consent that our mechanics shall succumb to the starvation standard of European wages.

This is the life and death issue in Pennsylvania, since our great victory of the 9th inst. They have been misrepresented long enough in the Senate of the United States. At this moment the iron mills of our country are on the verge of ruin, if they cannot be remembered in the Legislation of Congress.

Let our manufacturers urge their just claims to protection now through a Representative in the Senate who will possess some influence in Washington over and above a mere vote on a call of the yeas and nays. Let them relieve the politicians of this work, and now combine upon some man whose interests are identical with their own; whose experience will warn him of the impending danger; whose sagacity will enable him to exert power to avert it, and whose iron will and physical health will serve to uphold him in the struggle which must be fought with free trade.

PITTSBURGH, MAY, 16th, 1866.
MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH:
GENTLEMEN.—During a visit to the West last fall, I contracted chills and fever, which brought me to my bed, and finally terminated in typhoid fever, and confined me to my room for several months, during which time I was physically so prostrated that I almost despaired of ever recovering my health, having almost entirely lost my appetite for days, not being able to eat a morsel, added to which I was distressed with a reeling sensation in my head, and passed many sleepless nights—all from debility caused by my prostrate condition, brought about by fever. At this stage of my condition a friend, recommended me to use your celebrated Stomach Bitters, but being morally opposed to the use of stimulants in any form, I at first declined, but afterward yielded my prejudices, and after taking the medicine for several weeks, my appetite returned, and with it I am rapidly regaining my former strength and vigor. My sleep (from the loss of which I have suffered much) has never been better than it is now, and the reeling sensation (before alluded to) has entirely left me. My bowels, which were much constipated and irregular, are now quite natural, and, in fact, I am glad to say that I feel myself a new man, and tender you this testimonial or my appreciation of your valuable preparation in order that others may avail themselves of its virtues, which prejudice kept me from enjoying for so long a period. I may also add that my physician, after seeing beneficial effect of your Bitters on me, recommended that I use them regularly.
Yours, very respectfully,
E. BOURNE,

J. B. CAPEWELL,
WIND-GUARD AND AIR-HEATER FOR COAL OIL LAMPS.
PATENTED OCTOBER 25TH, 1865.
The merits of this invention consist in its protection to lamp chimneys, which are continually breaking while being used with the ordinary lamps.
No sudden transition from heat to cold can crack or break these chimneys; the lamps can be carried with safety and without apprehension, in the most violent wind,—reflecting a steady light under all circumstances, and the fact that one-third less of oil is consumed, renders this a most valuable acquisition to house-keepers. Samples sent to any part of the U. S. on receipt of 25 cents, post paid.

MEDICAL.

E. S. ABORN, M. D.,
OCULAR
AND
Physician for Diseases of the Respiratory Organs,
HAS TAKEN ROOMS AT THE Merchants' Hotel,
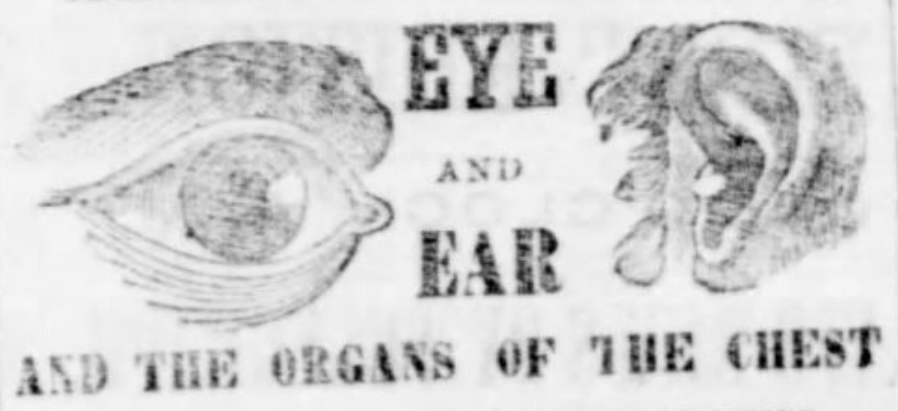
Where he will be prepared to practice the most recent and scientific system of MEDICINE and SURGERY, for the alleviation of suffering humanity.
ALL DISEASES OF THE



AND THE ORGANS OF THE CHEST
TREATED WITH THE UTMOST SUCCESS.
Embracing all Acute and Chronic Maladies of the Eye, Blindness, Cross Eye, Falling of the Eye-lid, Catarrh, etc., Deafness, Roaring and Buzzing in the Ears, Discharge from the Ears etc., Diseases of the Nose, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Asthma, Consumption and Affections of the Heart and Stomach.

HEALTH IS THE HIGHEST BLESSING!
Man will give all he has for relief from disability and pain. Yet thousands suffer for a long series of years, and linger out a useless life, who, with proper treatment, might be restored to health and contribute to the health and happiness of others. But the fault is not with the patient, for he tries persistently the various Doctors and

QUACK NOSTRUMS
For relief, and finds it not. The reason is, the general physician has but little time to inform himself in regard to the improvements in medicine and surgery. Many physicians know but little of the causes of disease, and are consequently ignorant of cure, with but a limited opportunity for extensive study, and restricted in their observations to a small circle of country, they cannot expect to become expert in all diseases. A scientific and practical means of cure must result from long study and extensive research in respect to special diseases. Of this fact medical men of this country and all the countries of Europe are aware; and the ablest practitioners are giving their best energies to special diseases. They have mastered the laws of life and health—marked the pathological changes in disease—and found safe and effectual remedies. To long and patient study of the diseases of the

EYE, EAR,
Throat, Lungs and Chest,
And his discoveries of new remedies and new applications of old ones, DR. ABORN owes his unparalleled success in curing diseases that have long baffled all previous treatment. And his dexterous and delicate surgical operations on the Eye, Ear, &c.,

Are the fruits of his exact knowledge of Anatomy and an extensive practice of his art as surgeon of the Eye and Ear Infirmary of San Francisco, Cal., and as Physician and Surgeon-in-Chief of the Nashville Medical and Surgical Institute. The most despairing invalids will be encouraged to hope for cure on visiting his rooms and witnessing the numerous testimonials and evidence of his skill.

CATARRH.
Catarrh of the head is the commonest of diseases. In its early stages it is scarcely noticed. The patient complains a little of cold in the head, but heeds not the warning; or, if he does, he is likely to amuse himself with the thousand and one sops and snuffs recommended by a regiment of self-styled doctors or grandames. And so the disease runs on, till it results in Chronic Coryza, Gravedo, or general Ozæna. Then comes the annoying symptoms of lassitude, painful limbs, aching back, tightness across the forehead, corrupt discharges, profuse lachrymation, hoarseness, sore throat, furred tongue, nausea, loss of appetite, and general debility. If the disease is not soon arrested the throat becomes inflamed by the putrid discharges, the bronchi irritated, and the lungs poisoned by the inhalation of the air passing over the diseased part, about twenty thousand times a day, and pregnant with the disgusting effluvia. A cough soon ensues, which, aggravated by the filthy head, accumulations gravitating downwards, continues until the lungs give way, and fatal Consumption closes the scene. The slightest cold in the head, therefore, should receive prompt attention, for the cure at this stage is easy; but if allowed to become chronic catarrh, it requires the best skill and a long time to cure it. Indeed patients laboring under this terrible malady have looked in vain for help. Such should know that Dr. ABORN has discovered a treatment sure to give speedy relief, and to result finally in a complete cure.

OTORRHŒA.
This disease is distinguished by a purulent or mucopurulent discharge from the ear, which is only a symptom of the real disease. Many suffer through life with this evil under the impression that it cannot be cured, or because some wonderful prodigy has promulgated the idea that to arrest the discharge is to pen up the poison in the system to break out in some more dangerous part. The stupidity of such persons is to be pitied. What, keep open a sluiceway for running off corrupt humors, or cleanse the fountain that the filthy stream may dry up! A thimbleful of common sense guided by a competent knowledge of the nature and causes of this disease, will eradicate it in a short time, not only without injury but with a remarkable improvement of the general health. The causes of this affection are inflammation from teething or from exanthematous diseases, from polypi, from granulations of the membrana tympani, scrofula, &c. It is easy to see that if the cause is a polypus, it can easily be removed and with as little danger as the extirpation of a wart on the hand. The same is true if granulations of the tympanum are the cause; and if the inflammation is the result of a scrofulous condition or a malarious poison, eliminate the poison or change the cachexia and the cause ceases. Thus a safe cure is effected. The different varieties and causes of this troublesome complaint may be learned at DR. ABORN'S rooms, and a sure and safe remedy obtained.

Hope for Consumptives!
Colds produce Catarrh. Catarrh produces Laryngitis, Tracheatis, Bronchitis and Consumption. These diseases have long baffled the ordinary modes of treatment, because remedies have not been brought to bear on the parts affected. But by Dr. ABORN'S New Inhalator, every part of the breathing apparatus can at once be reached by medicated inhalation, and the most astonishing results follow its application. Diseases of the throat and lungs are speedily cured, while the inhalation is entirely agreeable and pleasant.

References.
We, the undersigned citizens of Scranton, having witnessed the skill of DR. ABORN'S surgical operations and the wonderful cures of cases of long standing and generally deemed hopeless by patients and physicians, are happy to lend our names for the encouragement of the afflicted, that they may not despair even in the most desperate cases:

TESTIMONIALS.
Of the many testimonials in our possession we select the following. Others from persons of character and high social position, who may be referred to, and can be seen by calling at the Merchant's Hotel:

As an Act of Justice.
I regard it as an act of simple justice to say that Dr. E. S. Aborn has been practicing as a physician and surgeon in Scranton for six weeks past, during which he has successfully treated a number of difficult cases thought to be incurable, and further, that I consider him to be a skillful physician, and one every way entitled to confidence.
I. RONEY,
Supt. and Principal of High School.
SCRANTON, Oct. 1, 1866.

To the Suffering.
I have been suffering with chronic sore eyes for fifteen months. My attention was called to Dr. Aborn's advertisements in the papers of the day. I called upon him, and have been under his treatment a few days and I have found great relief; indeed, I feel nearly well, and would advise all who are suffering with disease of the eye to call on him, believing they will find relief.
HON. ASA FAULKNER,
Member of the General Assembly.
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
NASHVILLE, June 17th, 1866.

A Wonderful Cure.
Read the following sworn affidavit regarding the cure of a case of deafness of twenty-two years standing, by Dr. Aborn:
This is to certify that I have been totally deaf in my left ear for twenty-two years, and that Dr. Aborn restored the hearing in five minutes time, the first time I have been able to hear out of the left ear for twenty-two years. As I consider this a remarkable cure, I have voluntarily made this statement.
JOHN S. RUPLE.
Sworn and subscribed this 25th day of August, 1866, before me.
B. JAY, Alderman, Scranton, Pa.

To the Afflicted!
Dr. E. S. Aborn, the eminent physician and surgeon, formerly of the city of San Francisco, California, and more recently of the Nashville Medical and Surgical Institute, whose wonderful success has astounded the world in the treatment of Deafness, Blindness, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitas, and all chest diseases, has arrived in our city. The press of Nashville and San Francisco teems with the most flattering notices of Dr. Aborn's skill, and the many testimonials he bears from men of high social position, place him above the suspicion of quackery, from which our people have so long suffered, and point to him as a ministering angel to those who are afflicted.—Memphis Appeal, Dec. 1865.
TO THE PUBLIC:—I cheerfully and voluntarily make known the fact that I had been deaf for nine years, and that Dr. Aborn restored my hearing perfectly by two operations. I bid the Doctor God speed in his work of mercy. P. O'HORA.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE.)

United States District Court—Counterfeiters Sentenced.

In the United States District Court, Judge M'Candless on the bench, Stewart, Spencer and Perkins, convicted of counterfeiting during the present term of Court, were called up for sentence.

Martin L. Stewart was first sentenced. The prisoner was a resident of Brush Valley, Indiana county, where he carried on a lucrative business as a tanner and store-keeper. He was convicted of passing, and having in his possession, with intent to pass, counterfeit fractional currency. He was sentenced to pay a fine of one thousand dollars and undergo five years imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.

The next case called up was that of Thomas Spencer, alias Shotwell, alias King. Spencer was one of the Oakland manufacturers, arrested by detectives Wood, of Philadelphia, and John Herron of this city. Before sentence was pronounced, by permission of the court, Spence made a speech, in which he stoutly protested his innocence, and claimed that he had been duped by an unknown party, and victimized by detectives. He said he was formerly a horse dealer, but had latterly been employed as traveling agent for a house in Chicago. He denied ever having manufactured, passed or sold a counterfeit note. He claimed that the materials found in his house had been sent there without his knowledge or consent, and complained of the bad character given him by the press of Pittsburgh. The speech was disconnected, copiously interlarded with slang terms, and had very little effect upon those who heard it.

Upon the conclusion of Spencer's speech, Judge McCandless sentenced the prisoner to pay a fine of five thousand dollars, and to undergo fifteen years imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary. William Perkins, alias Henry, alias Hendricks, an accomplice of Spencer, and arrested at the same time, was sentenced to pay a fine of three thousand dollars and to undergo an imprisonment of ten years in the penitentiary.

The prisoners were also jointly indicted for manufacturing counterfeit money, but the court deferred the sentence upon that indictment. His Honor remarked that the President had been induced, by false representations, to exercise executive clemency in a number of cases, and that if a portion was secured by the defendants by any such means, they could be sentenced on the second indictment.

An Old Confidence Game.

An elderly gentleman, hailing from the Buckeye State, arrived in the city several days ago for the purpose of selling cheese. He made the St. Clair Hotel his stopping place, and while there formed the acquaintance of a man who represented himself as a merchant, engaged in business in this city. Yesterday evening our bogus merchant proposed a stroll through the city, and while going along one of the principal streets was accosted by a third party, who inquired of our mercantile friend if he would be at his store soon. Upon receiving an answer that he would not, on account of his wife being sick, the accomplice (as such he was) regretted it, saying that he wished to settle his account and get away on the night train, at the same time offering a bond, to which our mercantile friend objected, on account of not having sufficient funds to change. But recollecting his newly made friend, he politely requested a loan of one hundred dollars, which he received. That amount not being quite enough, he requested a further loan of twenty dollars more, promising to pay it all upon his return to the hotel. After parting with his accomplice they strolled together to another hotel, where mercantile man had a "little engagement." He went into the hotel, leaving our country friend behind to realize for the first time that he was taken in and done for.

Horrible Accident.—A terrible accident occurred in the cotton mill, at Reading, on Tuesday, whereby a married lady, named Mary Wells, an employee in the mill, came near losing her life. It appears that as she was passing the force pump, she was caught in the coupling, twisting her around and breaking her leg in four places. The unfortunate woman was rescued from her horrible situation, when it was found that her limb was so horribly mutilated that amputation was necessary. Drs. Weidman and Kalbach performed the operation very successfully, and the patient is now doing as well as can be expected under the circumstances.

Furniture, Carpets and Blankets at Auction.—This (Thursday) morning at ten, and afternoon at two o'clock, at McClelland's Auction House, 55 and 57 Fifth street, will be sold, without reserve, a large lot of superior household furniture, carpets, &c., in good condition, being nearly new, having been in use but a few months. Included in the sale are: One fine book-case and secretary, fine bureaus, cottage setts, large lot fine engravings, queensware, new oil lamps, cook, egg and parlor stoves; also white and colored blankets.

Larceny as Bailee.—Daniel Rupert came to the office of Alderman Strain, yesterday, and made oath against George Rauch, charging him with larceny by bailee. It appears Rupert gave $70 to Rauch last spring for safe keeping, which he retained until Friday, when the prosecutor demanded his money. The accused gave $50 of the sum but refused to give the additional $20, stating that he had never received it. After a patient hearing the magistrate held Rauch to bail in the sum of $300 to answer the charge at court.

Had a Hearing.—A hearing was had before Alderman John A. Strain yesterday in the case of Eliza Esbury against Chales Gushart and Adam Wilbert the two latter having been charged by the lady with having knocked down and cruelly maltreated her husband a few days ago on the summit of Mount Washington, in Lower St. Clair township. The defendants were each requested to furnish bail in the sum of two hundred dollars for trial, which they did, and were liberated.

Charged with Stealing a Mirror.—A young lady named Annie Lindle appeared before Alderman Lynch yesterday and made oath against Susan Damphries, for the larceny of a looking-glass and several minor articles of domestic use, from the residence of the deponent in Virgin alley. The larceny is said to have been committed on Sunday evening last when Mrs. Tindle was attending a lecture at the Academy of Music. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the accused.

Conspiracy to Defraud.—Patrick Sullivan came to the office of Justice Lippert, yesterday, and made oath against John F. Roglin and his wife Sarah, charging them with having conspired to defraud him out of a certain sum of money, which he had deposited in the hands of the woman prior to her marriage with Roglin. The parties accused were arrested and held to bail for a hearing to-morrow.

Committed for Robbery.—Samuel Williams was committed to jail yesterday, charged with having robbed John Brown, of Manchester, of a hunting-case silver watch, valued at $30. Both parties were confined in the Allegheny tombs on Monday night, where the robbery is said to have been committed. Williams acknowledges the theft.

Back Again.—We are glad to welcome back to the city His Honor, Mayor McCarthy, who has been, for several days absent. During his absence our friend, Alderman E. S. Morrow has officiated as Acting Mayor. No better choice of deputy could have been made by the Mayor.

Wood Street Property at Auction.—This (Thursday) afternoon at four o'clock, on the premises, will be sold that very valuable three-storied brick warehouse and lot, No. 29 Wood street, now occupied by King & Pennock. T. A. McClelland, auctioneer.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. yl1dAw

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Old Claims Against British Privateers—The Instructions of Mr. Adams—Prompt and Full Peyment Demanded—The Mexican Question—The Baltimore Difficulty—Governer Swann Sustained by the Cabinet.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The Times' Washington special says: In regard to our affairs with England, growing out of the depredations during the late war of the privateers Alabama and Shenandoah, Mr. Adams, our Minister to the Court of St. James, was, some time since, instructed to make a peremptory demand for indemnity for the loss sustained by our commercial interests. To this demand Mr. Adams received an evasive reply. He was immediately instructed to repeat the demand. He did so, but no definite response has yet been received, but the tone of the English newspapers received indicates that these renewed and persistent demands have not been without some effect.

The British Government is now putting out feelers in the various organs showing their disposition in the matter. From these it appears that they are willing to submit the claims to arbitration or to a Board of National Commissioners. Our Government will accept no arrangement of this sort, but will insist on a prompt and full payment of the claims. This is our ultimatum as contained instructions under which Mr. Adams is acting.

The Times' Washington special says: The attitude of this Government toward Mexico, and the condition of affairs in that country, as previously communicated to you is fully confirmed. The French Government have asked for a delay of the time for the withdrawal of the first instalment of their troops until the first of January, with the promise that if the time is granted it will waive the time allowed for the removal of the remaining detachments; and remove all substantially at the one time. To this our Government has not assented, but insists that the withdrawal shall commence at once, and proceed as vigorously as possible. In case of anarchy, our Government will sustain the Juarez Government, and in consideration of services rendered, Lower California and the Northern frontiers of Senaloa and Chihuahua will be ceded to the United States.

It is no part of the agreement yet made that the United States is to guarantee the claims of France against Mexico, though such a course may yet appear expedient and proper, in which case the Government of this country will not hesitate to take the responsibility. The main point is to enforce the Monroe Doctrine by removing European intervention from Mexican affairs, and securing to that country a stable republican form of government.

The responsibility of this undertaking has been fully discussed by the Cabinet, and the decision has been unanimously arrived at that the time has come for the energetic action indicated in the proceedings above foreshadowed. These proceedings have now taken definite form and shape, and have entered so far into prosecution as to be beyond recall.

A Times Washington special says: Governor Swann, of Maryland, had a long interview with the President this morning, continuing up to the moment of the meeting of the Cabinet. He then withdrew until the Cabinet had adjourned, at which time the interview was renewed. The subject of the protracted interview was the threatening state of affairs in Maryland. The subject was also discussed in the Cabinet, and there is the best authority for saying that the Cabinet unanimously agree as to the course of the Governor. Under the decision in the Datt case, it is acknowledged that the General Government is bound to protect the constituted authorities of any or all the States against the domestic insurrection or any other form of resistance to their authority.

Gov. Swann's proclamation is fully approved by the President.

The Failure of Alden, Frink & Co.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—The Herald's special from Troy says: The creditors of the suspended firm of Alden, Frink & Co., of Cahoes, are here from New York endeavoring to secure their debts, and represent that the firm bought recently upwards of $20,000 worth of goods which never left the city, but were there sold at auction. This unpleasant fact materially damages their case.

Murder at Lincoln, Illinois

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Information has been received here of the murder of Mr. Gilbert Eaton, son of Mr. Orsamus Eaton, the head of the celebrated car building firm of this city, at Lincoln, Illinois, by a man named Warwick, who was quarreling with the partner of the hotel where Mr. Eaton was stopping, and with whom Mr. Eaton remonstrated, when the man turned upon him and stabbed him to death with a dirk.

Louisiana and the Constitutional Amendment.

NEW YORK, October 24.—The Herald's New Orleans special says: It is positively asserted in some quarters that President Johnson has urged Governor Wells to force the Constitutional Amendment through the Legislature.

FOR SALE—400 Acres of Coal Land, lying immediately upon the Ohio River, 20 miles below Gallipolis, and 135 miles above Cincinnati. On the above tract is a four foot vein of Coal, which, for general purposes, is not surpassed. It is entirely different from the Southern Ohio Coal; contains but little sulphur, forges and cokes well, and for making steam cannot be excelled. The location being about midway from Pomeroy and Hanging Rock, must make it valuable for coaling boats. There is a water front of ¾ of a mile, with a good landing at all stages of the river. An entrance has been run in the hill about 300 feet, track finished to river, together with the necessary fixtures for mining and delivering coal afloat. On said tract is first-class double Portable Circular Saw Mill together with a Portable Grist Mill, all in good running order, and plenty of the very best oak, ash and poplar timber. Would sell one-half interest if desired, to a party with experience and capital for working same.

WEDNESDAY, October 24, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 147⅝; 1881's, 113⅝; 5-20's, old, 114¾; do new, 110½; 10-40s, 100; 7-30's, 1st series, 106½; do 2d and 3d, 105¾. Michigan Southern, R. R., 92; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 92½; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 109¾; Erie R. R., 82⅝; Union Telegraph Company, 53¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 109; Chicago & North Western, 55¼; do preferred, 81½.

There was a fair attendance at McIlwaine's Stock Auction last evening, though the list offered was calculated to bring out buyers There was but little interest manifested, and only two or three sales effected. M. & M. Bank stock was first put up, and knocked down at 63¾, which we consider cheap. Tradesmens National was put up, but withdrawn at 105 bid. Fourth National brought but one bid, at par, and was withdrawn. Allegheny Co. Fives moved more briskly, but strange to say, were withdrawn at 77 bid, which is above Philadelphia quotations. 75 was bid for City of Pittsburgh Fives, and withdrawn. Marine Oil Company was very heavy—sales at 2¾, and more was offered at same, without finding buyers. Somebody has burnt fingers over the late purchases at $4 per share. Who are they? Paxton offered at 10c—no bids.

—The money market is fully supplied with call loans at 4@5 per cent. By reference to the Bank Statement it will be seen that their managers are still expanding their loans in the face of a steady decrease not only in their deposits but in their reserve of legal tenders. Nor is there much reason to suppose they will change their policy until the financial balloon explodes. Bank officers, managers of railways and of financial institutions generally, go a great way in making up the swarm of bulls who are now putting up prices by clique movements, aided by cheap money at call. At present they are not disposed by conservative measures to check an advance which would inflict severe terms upon them in common with ordinary speculators. They may, however, be brought to their senses by a reduction in plain legal tenders in the next Treasury statement to the extent of $10,000,000, and perhaps to $14,000,000, and an assurance by Mr. McCulloch that he is able to destroy $4,000,000 per month, until the whole of the disgraceful forced loan in the form of legal tenders is canceled. Such are the intimations from Washington, and in view of the meeting of Congress they are likely to be fully realized.—N. Y. Tribune.

—The New York Times interprets Secretary McCulloch's "policy" as follows:

The Treasury, we believe, is purchasing or exchanging into the new consolidated 1865s, July and January, all the considerable lots of seven thirties and compounds that offer on fair terms, as it is buying with gold all the short 6 per cent gold-bearing stocks, due in 1867-8, that offer in the same way. One of our fault finding cotemporaries is calling for the removal of the Secretary because he is quietly paying off the old debt of the government soon to fall due, in gold, and another is charging him with favoritism because he is paying off or funding the temporary currency obligations created during the closing years of the war. In the one case it is said he ought not to part with his gold on any terms until all of $150,000,000 is locked up; in the other that he ought to lock up his greenbacks bearing no interest whatever, rather than pay off or fund his interest bearing currency debt. The advice is by no means consistent, but coming from opposite stand points, this is not to be wondered at. The bulls in the gold room would be delighted to have $150,000,000 in place of $90,000,000 or $95,000,000 of the precious metal locked up; the bears on the Stock Exchange would be doubly pleased to have the money market distressed and the collection of the Government revenue embarrassed by the rapid curtailment of greenbacks. The chance, however, are that Mr. McCulloch will quietly, as any practical banker would do, apply the present richness of his surplus revenues to the best possible advantage of the country—to paying off his gold-bearing stocks with gold, when it can be done to profit; to reducing the interest, as well as lessening the principal of his currency obligations, so long as he has the means of doing so, or to consolidating the latter whenever opportunity offers. As to "pet brokers" and all that sort of talk, we dare say the Secretary has some time since ceased to regard or be annoyed by it. Any broker, banker or other fund-holder, who may feel either slighted or suspicious on the score of partiality, has only to apply to the Treasury office to be satisfied that he can deal with the government on the same terms as the most "favored parties;" nothing less and nothing more will be made out of the Government.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, October 24, 1866.

The movements in produce continue rather light, and while there is a fair volume of business, in the aggregate, the transactions in the leading are almost wholly of a local and unimportant character. Flour is more active and firmer, with an upward tendency, and there is a slight improvement in the demand for Grain. There is a very fair jobbing demand for Groceries, but prices are without quotable change. In produce, generally, the market is moderately active, with a demand about equal to the supply, but there are no changes in values worthy of special notice.

GRAIN—No. 1 Spring Wheat is quoted firm at $2,60 to $2,65. Sale of 1 car fair Winter Red at $2,58. Oats in better supply but steady; sales of of 800 bush, on wharf, at 50, and small sales from store at 53 to 55. No movement in Rye or Barley. Sale of 1200 bush Shelled Corn, in elevator, at $1,01½, the seller to deliver free on board cars.

FLOUR—The demand is more active, and while the market is a shade firmer, prices have undergone no further change. We continue to quote at $12 to $12,50 for Spring Wheat, and $13 to $13,50 for Winter Wheat. Sales of 250 bbls "Ford," "Crossett," and "Bartlett," all at $12,50. Rye Flour is quoted at $7,25 for new. Buckwheat is drooping—may be quoted at $4,50 to $5 per cwt—in store.

PROVISIONS—Bacon continues dull but unchanged. We quote at 17 for Shoulders; 18 for Ribbed Sides; and 25c for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull but unchanged at 17½ to 18 for prime kettle rendered. Mess Pork is quoted at $33,75 to $34,00. Demand light.

BUTTER—Is quiet but steady, with regular sales of prime to choice Roll at 30 to 33. Packed Butter is in good supply and very dull, there being no margin for shipment east.

CHEESE—Is in good supply and a little dull but, as yet, unchanged. Western Reserve, 17; Hamburg, 18; and Goshen, 20 to 22.

EGGS—There is a very fair demand, and fresh packed sell on arrival at 30.

APPLES—Continue to arrive pretty freely, but the demand is rather better, and as yet, prices are maintained, ranging from $3 to $3½ per bbl for good to choice.

CRANBERRIES—The supply is rather light and the market is firm at $15 per bbl for common, and $20 for cultivated.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed is dull and neglected with small sales at $3. Flaxseed is in demand at $3. Cloverseed is quiet and unchanged.

HAY—A small lot of prime baled changed hands on wharf at $24—quotations may be given at $20 to $25, as to quality.

SWEET POTATOES—Reported steady with regular sales at $4½ per bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—Sale to the trade of 75 bbls quarter Peaches at 18c. Prime halves quoted at 23. No demand for Apples.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, October 24, 1866.

CRUDE—There is no improvement to note in the demand for Crude, and the market continues dull and languid, though prices are nominally unchanged—12 to 12½ bbls returned, and 17 to 17½ bbls included—sale of 200 bbls at 12. There is apparently no demand whatever at present, either for immediate or future delivery, and while shippers have but very few orders, refiners are still disposed to hold back in hopes that business will become more settled, and possibly improved. The eastern markets are quiet and dull, while at the wells, although we have no late advices, the presumption is that stagnation rules supreme.

REFINED—There was rather more inquiry for bonded oil to-day, and while the market was apparently a little firmer, prices as yet, are no better. We have sales of 1000 bbls for November delivery buyers option, at 32, free on board cars here; 500 for first half of November, delivered in Philadelphia, at 37½; 500, on the spot, at 37½; 500 for December, at 37½; and 500 for November, at 38. From the above it will be seen that quotations may be fairly given at 31½ to 32, free on board cars here, and 37½ to 38, delivered in Philadelphia. Free oil is dull and nominally unchanged.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

Jas. Gallagher......	238	White, Bro. & Co..	59
Brewer & Burke....	51	McCreight & Co...	45
Total......			385

Cincinnati Iron Market.

CINCINNATI, October 22.—There is a continued good demand for hot blast pig, and the sales during the week were liberal. Manufaturers are buying more freely in anticipation of higher prices, though no advance has yet been established. The tendency, however, is upward. We quote mill iron at $48 per ton, and No. 1 at $50@52, the latter for the best brands. Cold blast is also in better request, but we have no change to note in quotations. We quote Missouri at $55@60, and car-wheel iron at 65@70. Bar iron is in fair demand at 5@6½c per pound for common and charcoal. Horse and mule-shoes are in active demand, and the tendency is toward higher figures, though no advance has yet been established. We quote horse at 8½@8¾c per pound, and mule at 9½@9¾c for Shoenberger's extra.

Chicago Cattle Market.

CHICAGO, October 23—The fresh receipts of Beef Cattle to-day are 658 head. Entered sales, 876 head, at prices ranging from $3,90@5,87½ for common stock to fair packing and feeding steers. The market is extremely dull nothwithstanding the light supply. The sales of beef cattle to-day include the following: 18 head fair butchers stock, weighing 15,730 lbs, at $5,12½; 39 mixed stock weighing 32,800 lbs, at $4,75; 37 fair butchers cows and steers, weighing 31,880 lbs, at $5,40; 21 fair steers, weighing 24,780, at $5,87½; 84 head Iowa feeding steers [illegible]

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Financial Matters.

NEW YORK, October 24.—Money easy and steady at 5 per cent. Sterling dull at 109@109¼. Gold a shade firmer, opening at 147½, advancing to 148¼, and closing at 147¾. Governments quiet and without decided change. Freights to Liverpool quiet.

NEW YORK, October 24.—Stocks steady and dull. Rock Island, 109; Toledo, 120; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 92; Northwestern, 55¾; do preferred, 80; Toledo and Wabash, 53¼; Hannibal and St. Joe, 47; Milwaukee and St. Paul, 62¾; do preferred, 67½; Reading, 116¾. Michigan Central, 114¾; Harlem, 99; Michigan Southern, 92½; Illinois Central, 125½; New York Central, 119¾; Illinois Central, B 90, 100; 6's, of '81 coupons, 113⅝; 5-20 coupons, of '62, 114¾; 5-20 coupons, of '64, 110¾; 5-20's, reg. '65, 106¼; 10-40 coupons, 100; Ohio and Mississippi Certificates, 33¾.

The Posts money article says: The loan market is easy at 5 per cent. The discount demand is light, as very little general business is doing. Good bills pass at 5@5½. Stock market is dull, and there is no disposition to do business, except among the speculative cliques. Governments are barely sustained; Railroad shares are irregular. Mining shares feverish. Railroad bonds strong. Bank shares firm and State stocks strong. The chief activity was in Michigan Southern, of which 10,500 gold, at 92½@93; Northwestern, 40,000 sold at 55½@55¾, and new preferred, 30,000 at 81@81⅝. After the regular board, the quotations were: New York Central, 12½; Erie, 82½; Hudson, 127; Reading, 116¾; Michigan Central, 114; Michigan Southern, 92½; Illinois Central, 125¾; Pittsburgh, 92⅝; Northwestern, 56¼; Northwestern preferred, 80¾; Toledo, 119; Rock Island, 109⅝; Fort Wayne, 109¾. Foreign Exchange dull, bills at sixty days on London, 108¾@108⅞; for Commercial, 109@109¼; for Bankers, do at short sight, 110@110¼.

The Commercial's money article says: There is a fairly active demand for money from the brokers, but without any change in the rates. First class borrowers generally pay 4 ℔ cent. on call loans. The transactions at 5 ℔ cent., however, are steadily increasing in volume. There is rather more activity in discounts, with an increased supply of paper, the rates for prime names being 5@6 ℔ cent. The stock market is more active and firmer. A sharp activity was developed at the regular Board in Michigan Southern. The sales amounted to 10,500 shares at 92¼@92¾, an advance of one per cent. The activity in North Western continues, the movement being aided by a multiplicity of rumors of the sort usually circulated when that stock happens to be under clique management, and with probably no more than the usual amount of truth in them. The price rose 1½ on the common stock, and 1½ on the preferred. The smaller western stocks are still active. Toledo and Wabash rose 2 ℔ cent., and Milwaukee and St. Paul preferred, 1 per cent. Foreign Exchange is quiet but firm; leading drawers quote 60 days' sterling at 109⅛, and francs 5.14⅜, long date.

LATEST.

The demand for money is very active, but the market remains in the same easy condition as for some time past. The supply of idle capital at this point is large, and the amount of currency required to move the hog crop will not likely create any stringency. The movement to the South is not large, and the prospects are certainly favorable to continued ease. Call loans range from 4 to 5 per cent., and prime discounts 5 to 6½ per cent. The Gold market was weak towards the close, and fell off to 146⅞@147. Foreign Exchange is quiet, but generally held firmly at 109½ for prime bankers' bills. The Government securities were steady this afternoon on the Gold bonds, but the Seven-Thirty notes were weak. The following were the closing prices: Registered, 1881, 113@114; coupons, 1881, 113⅝@113¾; Five-Twenties, registered, 1862, 108@108½; Five-Twenties, coupons, 1862, 114⅜@114½; Five-Twenties, coupons 1864, 110⅝@110¾; Five-Twenties, coupons 1865, 110⅝@111.

At the last open board the railroad market was weak and generally lower without much activity. After the call prices were generally steady among the miscellaneous shares; Union Navigation is strong, at 114½@115.

The coal list is firm on Wilkesbarre, at 63½@64, with an increasing demand; Spruce Hill is firm, at 4⅝@4½, with a good inquiry at these figures.

The following were the closing prices at 4.30 this afternoon: Ohio Certificates, 33½@33¾; Canton, 53@54; Cumberland, 58@58½; W. U. T., 52⅝@52¾; N. Y. C., 119⅛@119⅜; Erie, 81¾@82; Hudson, 127¼; Reading, 115⅝@115¾; M. S., 92@92¼; I. C., 125¼@125½; Pittsburgh, 92⅝@92⅞; Toledo, 118⅝@119½; R. I. & P., 108⅝@108¾.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, October 24.—The Dry Goods market opens rather less hopeful, but on Monday and Tuesay the reported advance in cotton in Liverpool, privately circulated on Monday, caused a more active cotton market for that day, and led to brighter anticipations in the dry goods trade, but the discovery of the hoax and the dullness of the market for raw yesterday, dispelled the hopeful feeling, and the market to-day is without a redeeming feature. Jobbers' prices were: Brown Sheetings—Atlantic, 23½; Pepperel, E, 25; do, R, 23. Bleached Shirtings—Bay Mills, 35; Lonsdale, 33¾; Reynolds' A A, 23. Stocks here are not large, and are in many cases withheld in anticipation of a further improvement. Timothy seed has ruled dull throughout the week, the demand being quite light. Prime samples are held at $3,10@3,20, though some purchases were made at $3. Flax is in better request, and the tendency is toward higher figures, though no material advance has yet been established. We quote prime samples $2,75@2,85.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point, with about twenty-seven inches in the channel at Glass House. Weather yesterday was blustery and cold, with a light fall of snow at intervals.

No arrivals from below, excepting the Parkersburg packets. The R. C. Gray and Rob Roy were aground at Glass House yesterday forenoon, as was also the Forest City. The first named boat left here about noon on Tuesday, and must have been there fully twenty-four hours. The Grey is bound up from Louisville, and she will doubtless be found in port this morning.

Business is almost wholly suspended at the landing, and there are no indications at present of any immediate improvement. There is some little freight here for different points below, but shippers will not move it until there is some prospect of boats being able to get out.

THE LAST RUN OF COAL.—Subjoined is a full and aggregate list of the boats and amount of coal received, and forwarded on the late rise, Sam Roberts, ten barges; Sam Roberts & Co.
